ACUPUNCTURE NEEDLES

Superior Quality Acupuncture Needles

Red Coral is one of the most superior acupuncture needles to arrive on the Australian market, with stringent quality control at all stages of production.

Red Coral acupuncture needles have micro-channel technology for a low force painless insertion. Red Coral needles are produced with the highest quality surgical stainless steel and all production is done with state of the art sterile equipment. All Red Coral needles undergo physical performance testing to ensure the highest quality. Red Coral acupuncture needles have TGA certification.

Red Coral needles are ideal for dry needling and trigger point therapy and are used in APA accredited dry needling courses in association with Select Physio – www.dryneedlingcourses.com
